

SPECIAL ISSUE

Kenya Gazette Supplement No. 12 (Bomet County Bills No. 7)

REPUBLIC OF KENYA

KENYA GAZETTE SUPPLEMENT

BOMET COUNTY BILLS, 2023

NAIROBI, 14th September, 2023

CONTENT

Bill for Introduction into the County Assembly of Bomet—

PAGE

The Bomet County Gender Equality and Women Empowerment Bill, 2023 1

THE BOMET COUNTY GENDER EQUALITY AND WOMEN
EMPOWERMENT BILL, 2023

ARRANGEMENT OF CLAUSES

Clause

PART I — PRELIMINARY

- 1—Short title and commencement.
- 2—Application of Act.
- 3—Interpretation.
- 4—Objects and purpose of the Act.

PART II — SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT

- 5—Education and training.
- 6—Access to health care, including reproductive health.
- 7—Public education on prohibited practices, including gender based violence.

PART III —EQUAL REPRESENTATION AND EMPOWERMENT

- 8—Equal representation and participation.
- 9—Gender mainstreaming.
- 10—Measures to empower women and to eliminate discrimination.
- 11—Economic empowerment.
- 12—Socio-economic empowerment of women in rural areas.
- 13—Socio-economic empowerment of women with disabilities.

PART IV—GOVERNANCE

- 14—Powers of Executive Committee Member.
- 15—Guidance by Executive Committee Member.
- 16—Gender Units and compliance.

PART V—ENFORCEMENT

- 17—Enforcement.

PART V—CODE OF GOOD CONDUCT, NORMS AND STANDARDS AND REGULATIONS

- 18—Code of good conduct.
- 19—Framework on gender mainstreaming and women empowerment.

20—Regulations

PART V—MISCELLANEOUS

21—Delegation.

SCHEDULE

THE BOMET COUNTY GENDER EQUALITY AND WOMEN
EMPOWERMENT BILL, 2023

A Bill for

AN ACT of the County Assembly of Bomet to give effect to section 27 of the Constitution of the Republic of Kenya, in so far as the empowerment of women and gender equality is concerned; to establish a legislative framework for the empowerment of women; to align all aspects of laws and implementation of laws relating to women empowerment, and the appointment and representation of women in decision making positions and structures; and to provide for matters connected therewith

ENACTED by the County Assembly of Bomet, as follows —

PART I— PRELIMINARY

Short title and commencement

1. This Act may be cited as the Bomet County Gender Equality and Women Empowerment Act, 2023 and shall come into operation upon assent by the Governor.

Application

2. (1) Unless otherwise indicated in this Act, this Act applies to all public bodies and private bodies designated under sub-section (2).

(2) The Executive Committee Member may, in order to achieve the progressive realisation of this Act, by notice in the County and Kenya Gazette, designate public bodies and private bodies which must comply with one or more provisions of this Act specified in the notice.

(3) The Executive Committee Member may from time to time, for the purposes of sub section (2), designate different public bodies and private bodies which must comply with the relevant provisions.

Interpretation

3. In this Act, unless the context otherwise indicates—

“applicable legislation” means, but is not limited to, the laws specified in Schedule 1;

“Constitution” means the Constitution of the Republic of Kenya, 2010;

“Department” means the Department of Women, Youth, Children and People with Disabilities;

“Discrimination” means discrimination as defined in the Convention on the Elimination of All forms Discrimination Against Women (December 1979) and Beijing Declaration and Platform of Action (September 1995);

“gender” means the roles, duties and responsibilities which are culturally or socially ascribed to women, men, girls and boys;

“gender based violence” means all acts perpetrated against women, girls, men and boys on the basis of their gender and sex which cause or could cause them physical, sexual, psychological, emotional or economic harm, and includes any threat to cause such harm;

“gender discrimination” means any distinction, exclusion or restriction made on the basis of gender and sex which has the effect or purpose of impairing or nullifying the equal recognition, enjoyment or exercise by a person of her or his human rights and fundamental freedoms in any spheres of life;

“gender equality” means the full and equal enjoyment of rights and freedoms and equal access to resources, opportunities and outcomes, by women, men, girls and boys;

“gender mainstreaming” means the process of identifying gender gaps and making women’s, men’s, girls’ and boys’ concerns and experiences integral to the design, implementation, monitoring and evaluation of policies and programmes in all sectors of life to ensure that they benefit equally;

“Executive Committee Member” means the Executive Committee Member responsible for Gender, Children, Youth and People with Disabilities;

“political party” means a party as defined in Article 260 of the Constitution, 2010;

“prescribed” means prescribed by regulation in terms of this Act;

“private body” means—

- (a) a natural person who carries on any trade, business or profession, but only in 10 such capacity;
- (b) a partnership which carries on any trade, business or profession; or
- (c) any juristic person, but excludes a public body;

“public body” means—

- (a) any department of state or administration in the national or provincial sphere of government or any municipality in the local sphere of government; or
- (b) any other functionary or institution when—

- (i) exercising a power or performing a duty in terms of the Constitution or a provincial constitution; or
- (ii) exercising a public power or performing a public function in terms of any legislation;

“substantive gender equality” means gender equality in fact and in law;

“this Act” includes any regulation made under this Act; and “women empowerment” means the advancement of women as contemplated by section 27(3) of the Constitution.

Objects and Purposes of Act

4. The objectives of this Act are to—

- (a) give effect to the letter and spirit of the Constitution, in particular—
 - (i) the equal enjoyment of all rights and freedoms by every person;
 - (ii) the promotion of equality, specifically gender equality; and
 - (iii) the values of human dignity, equity, social justice, inclusiveness and protection of the marginalized contained in section 10 of the Constitution;
- (b) facilitate compliance by designated public bodies and designated private bodies, with the country’s commitments to international agreements, including—
 - (i) the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (December 1979);
 - (ii) the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action (September 1995);
 - (iii) the Millennium Declaration and Development Goals (September 2000);
 - (iv) the Solemn Declaration on Gender Equality in Africa (July 2004); and
- (c) align all aspects of the laws and the implementation of the laws relating to women empowerment and the appointment and representation of women in decision-making positions and structures;
- (d) facilitate the development and implementation of plans and strategies by designated public bodies and designated private bodies for the promotion of 55 women empowerment and gender equality, and the submission of those plans and strategies to the Executive Committee Member for consideration, evaluation and guidance;

- (e) provide for the implementation of measures to achieve a progressive realisation of a minimum of 50 percent presentation and meaningful participation of women in decision-making structures including Boards by designated public bodies and designated private bodies, as contemplated in section 8;
- (f) provide for the implementation of gender mainstreaming by designated public bodies and designated private bodies as contemplated in section 9; and
- (g) provide for the development and implementation of public education programmes on practices that unfairly discriminate on grounds of gender as contemplated in the applicable legislation and in international agreements in order to promote gender equality and social cohesion

PART II—SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT

Education and training

5. (1) Designated public bodies and designated private bodies must develop and implement plans and measures in compliance with applicable legislation and international agreements, to—

- (a) address the pervasive discriminatory patriarchal attitudes and the lingering effects of apartheid faced by women in the education system, and ensure that woman's childbearing responsibilities are not the cause for drop out or exclusion, in order to achieve the progressive realisation of access to education for all;
- (b) educate and train women in order to achieve the progressive realisation of equitable and sustainable development for women and gender equality;
- (c) capacitate and enable women to assimilate and develop knowledge, requisite skills and values, in order to achieve the progressive realisation of at least a minimum of 50 percent equal representation and meaningful participation of women in all decision-making position and structures, contemplated in section 7(1) and their economic empowerment contemplated in section 10(1);
- (d) improve access to education on reproductive rights for women, particularly young women; and

- (e) eliminate prejudices and current practices that hinder the achievement and enjoyment of gender equality and social cohesion.

(2) Designated public bodies and designated private bodies must submit to the Executive Committee Member their plans and measures in compliance with sub-section (1) within one year of being designated, for consideration, review and guidance.

(3) The Executive Committee Member may, at any time after the submission of the plan or measures contemplated in sub-section (2), require a designated public body or a designated private body to submit to the Executive Committee Member a report on its implementation of sub-section (1), for consideration, review and guidance.

Access to health care, including reproductive health

6. (1) Designated public bodies and designated private bodies must, within its available resources, develop and implement a model for delivering women's health, including reproductive health, in order to achieve the progressive realisation of access to health and reproductive rights for women, in compliance with the applicable legislation and international agreements such as the Millennium Declaration and Development Goals.

(2) Designated public bodies and designated private bodies must submit to the Executive Committee Member their plans and measures in compliance with sub-section (1) within one year of being designated, for consideration, review and guidance.

(3) The Executive Committee Member may, at any time after the submission of the plan or measures contemplated in sub-section (2), require a designated public body or a designated private body to submit to the Executive Committee Member a report on its implementation of sub-section (1), for consideration, review and guidance.

Public education on prohibited practices, including gender based violence

7. (1) Designated public bodies and designated private bodies must develop and implement plans to educate the public on practices that unfairly discriminate on grounds of gender, including gender based violence, in compliance with applicable legislation and international agreements such as the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action (September 1995), in order to achieve substantive gender equality in society and the workplace.

(2) The Executive Committee Member may establish mechanisms to undertake research, educational programmes and other measures to strengthen efforts of designated public bodies and designated private bodies to prevent and respond to gender-based violence.

(3) Designated public bodies and designated private bodies must submit to the Executive Committee Member their plans and measures in compliance with sub-section (1) within one year of being designated, for consideration, review and guidance.

(4) The Executive Committee Member may, at any time after the submission of the plan or measures contemplated in sub-section (3), require a designated public body or a designated private body to submit to the Executive Committee Member a report on its implementation of subsection (1), for consideration, review and guidance.

PART III —EQUAL REPRESENTATION AND EMPOWERMENT

Equal representation and participation

8. (1) Despite any other law, designated public bodies and designated private bodies must, within their ambit of responsibilities and available resources, develop and implement measures, in order to achieve the progressive realisation of a minimum of fifty per cent representation and meaningful participation of women in decision-making structures including Boards, which must include—

- (a) building women's capacity to participate;
- (b) enhancing the understanding and attitudes of communities to accept the capabilities and participation of women as their equals; and
- (c) developing support mechanisms for women.

(2) Despite any other law, all political parties must develop and implement measures for the progressive realisation of a minimum of 50 per cent representation and meaningful participation of women in decision-making positions and structures.

(3) The Executive Committee Member may develop guidelines to assist designated public bodies and designated private bodies to comply with sub-section (1).

(4) Designated public bodies and designated private bodies must submit to the Executive Committee Member their plans and measures in compliance with sub-section (1) within one year of being designated, for consideration, review and guidance.

(5) The Executive Committee Member may, at any time after the submission of the plan or measures contemplated in sub-section (2), require a designated public body or a designated private body to submit to the Executive Committee Member a report on its implementation of subsection (1), for consideration, review and guidance.

Gender mainstreaming

9. (1) Designated public bodies and designated private bodies must develop and implement plans and measures which seek to ensure gender mainstreaming.

(2) The measures may include—

- (a) the integration of gender considerations by all managers into all policies, structures, systems and processes relating to the designated public bodies and designated private bodies;
- (b) steps to ensure that decisions and activities of the designated public body or designated private body are preceded by a gender equality analysis;
- (c) remedial measures to—
 - (i) prevent or alleviate actual and potential prejudice on the basis of gender; and
 - (ii) reduce disparities between women and men;
- (d) steps aimed at ensuring compliance with obligations contained in applicable legislation and the international agreements; and
- (e) assessing the implications of its planned measures, in relation to gender mainstreaming.

(3) The policies, plans, programmes and strategies must, in the case of the designated public bodies, be approved by the Gender Focal Point contemplated in section 15, and in the case of designated private bodies, by the accounting officer also contemplated in that section.

(4) The Executive Committee Member may require a designated public body or a designated private body to submit its plan and measures contemplated in sub-section (1) within one year of being designated to the Executive Committee Member, for consideration, evaluation and guidance.

(5) The Executive Committee Member may, at any time after the submission of the plan or measures contemplated in sub-section (2), require a designated public body or a designated private body to submit to the Executive Committee Member a report on its implementation of sub-section (1), for consideration, review and guidance.

(6) The Executive Committee Member may develop guidelines to assist designated public bodies and designated private bodies to comply with sub-section (1).

Measures to empower women and to eliminate discrimination

10. (1) Despite any other law, targets for women in all laws and policies on empowerment shall be at least 50%.

(2) Designated public bodies and designated private bodies must, within their ambit of responsibilities, develop and implement plans and strategies to align their laws and policies with sub-section (1) within two years of coming into operation of this Act.

(3) Designated public bodies and designated private bodies must, within their ambit of responsibilities, develop and implement plans and strategies which will assist women to gain power and control over decisions and resources that determine the quality of their lives, in order to achieve the progressive realisation of women empowerment and gender equality.

(4) Designated public bodies and designated private bodies must promote women empowerment by taking measures such as—

- (a) changing the conditions and circumstances which hinder the achievement of sustainable and substantive gender equality;
- (b) establishing appropriate and relevant measures designed to recognise and support the roles of women in various sectors of life; and
- (c) implementing the applicable legislation, policies and strategies within their mandate and—
 - (i) aligning targets to improve compliance with such legislation, policies and strategies; and
 - (ii) auditing factors that cause and contribute to non-compliance with such legislation, policies and strategies.

(5) Designated public bodies and designated private bodies must develop and implement policies or programmes—

- (a) designed to protect and advance women who have been disadvantaged by unfair discrimination;
- (b) ensuring and promoting equal opportunities for women—
 - (i) seeking to eliminate;
 - (ii) gender discrimination;
 - (iii) exploitation of women in the labour market; and
 - (iv) gender-based violence.

(6) The policies or programmes may include—

- (a) economic and land reform initiatives that benefit women; and
- (b) initiatives that aim to promote the rights and benefits of women and achieve the requisite conditions for women empowerment in the workplace.

(7) Designated public bodies and designated private bodies must submit within one year of being designated, the—

- (a) plans and strategies contemplated in sub-section (2);
- (b) plans and strategies contemplated in sub-section (3);
- (c) measures contemplated in sub-section (4); and
- (d) policies or programmes contemplated in subsection (5), to the Executive Committee Member for consideration, evaluation and guidance.

(8) The Executive Committee Member may, at any time after the submission of the plans, strategies or measures contemplated in sub-section (7), require a designated public body or a designated private body to submit to the Executive Committee Member a report on its implementation of sub-section (1), for consideration, review and guidance.

(9) The Executive Committee Member may develop guidelines to assist designated public bodies and designated private bodies to comply with this section.

Economic empowerment

11. (1) Despite any other law, targets for women in all laws and policies on economic empowerment shall be at least 50%.

(2) Designated public bodies and designated private bodies must, within their ambit of responsibilities, develop and implement plans and strategies to align their laws and policies with sub-section (1) within two years of coming into operation of this Act.

(3) Designated public bodies and designated private bodies must, within their ambit of responsibilities and available resources, develop and implement plans and measures, to—

- (a) promote the economic empowerment of women;
- (b) promote women's access to economic and educational opportunities and productive resources;

- (c) increase access to financing, procurement, land rights, skills development, especially entrepreneurial skills and capacity building of women;
- (d) facilitate employment opportunities and access to the markets for women;
- (e) compile such data relating to economic empowerment of women as may be prescribed; and
- (f) comply with prescribed measures aimed at achieving the economic empowerment of women as contemplated by the applicable legislation.

(4) Designated public bodies or designated private bodies must submit its plans and measures contemplated in sub-section (3) within one year of being designated to the Executive Committee Member for consideration and evaluation.

(5) The Executive Committee Member may, at any time after the submission of the plan or measures contemplated in sub-section (2), require a designated public body or a designated private body to submit to the Executive Committee Member a report on its implementation of subsection (1), for consideration, review and guidance.

(6) The Executive Committee Member may develop guidelines to assist designated public bodies and designated private bodies to comply with sub-section (1).

Socio-economic empowerment of women in rural areas

12. (1) Despite any other law, designated public bodies and designated private bodies must develop and implement plans and measures, to—

- (a) facilitate sustainable livelihoods and decent work for women in rural areas, largely but not solely within agriculture;
- (b) mainstream gender in land reform programme to ensure more land in the hands of women in rural areas, together with the skills and financial resources necessary for them to use the land productively;
- (c) improve conditions for women on farms, women farm workers and women married to farm workers, to achieve a progressive realisation of security of tenure, housing and improved living conditions for women in rural areas; and
- (d) ensure equal representation and meaningful participation of women in traditional councils.

(2) The Executive Committee Member may require a designated public body or a designated private body to submit to the Executive Committee Member its plan and measures contemplated in sub-section (1) within one year of being designated, for consideration, evaluation and guidance.

(3) The Executive Committee Member may, at any time after the submission of the plan or measures contemplated in sub-section (2), require a designated public body or a designated private body to submit to the Executive Committee Member a report on its implementation of sub-section (1), for consideration, review and guidance.

Socio-economic empowerment of women with disabilities

13. (1) Designated public bodies and designated private bodies must develop and implement plans and measures for the economic empowerment of women with disabilities, including special measures to facilitate equal access to education and employment, and their meaningful participation in all areas of economic, social and cultural life, to achieve the progressive realisation of their right to substantive gender equality.

(2) A designated public body or a designated private body must submit its plans and measures contemplated in sub-section (1) within one year of being designated to the Executive Committee Member for consideration and evaluation.

(3) The Executive Committee Member may, at any time after the submission of the plan or measures contemplated in sub-section (2), require a designated public body or a designated private body to submit to the Executive Committee Member a report on its implementation of sub-section (1), for consideration, evaluation and guidance.

PART IV— GOVERNANCE

Powers of Executive Committee Member

14. (1) The Executive Committee Member may, in order to promote women empowerment and the achievement of substantive gender equality for women, in consultation with designated public bodies and designated private bodies—

- (a) develop frameworks in relation to the promotion of women empowerment and gender equality;
- (b) require the development and implementation of plans and strategies by designated public bodies and designated private bodies for the promotion of women empowerment and gender equality in compliance with applicable legislation and the submission of those plans and strategies for consideration, evaluation and guidance by the Executive Committee Member;

- (c) collect and analyse information on the plans and strategies submitted by the designated public bodies and designated private bodies for the promotion of women empowerment and gender equality;
- (d) collaborate with designated public bodies and designated private bodies to maximise the effectiveness of this Act and the implementation of the applicable legislation;
- (e) undertake research, educational programmes and other measures for the purpose of promoting and improving gender equality socially and in the workplace;
- (f) by notice in the County and Kenya Gazette—
 - (i) establish mechanisms to promote substantive gender equality;
 - (ii) establish mechanisms to support and strengthen the implementation of applicable legislation; and
 - (iii) issue an integrated, co-ordinated and uniform framework to achieve women empowerment and substantive gender equality.

(2) The Executive Committee Member may, in exercising her or his powers in terms of sub-section (1), request a designated public body or a designated private body to provide any information relating to compliance with this Act or applicable legislation.

(3) When requesting information from a designated public body or a designated private body in terms of sub-section (2), the Executive Committee Member may issue a direction on the submission of those reports.

Guidance by Executive Committee Member

15. (1) The Executive Committee Member may, on the basis of the information obtained in exercising her or his powers in terms of this Act and with regard to the applicable legislation, in consultation with the Executive Committee Member, provide guidance to the relevant designated public body or designated private body, for them to promote women empowerment and gender equality.

(2) Failure or refusal to comply with the guidance provided by the Executive Committee Member to a designated public body or a designated private body will be addressed in terms of the enforcement procedures as contemplated in section 17.

Gender Units and compliance

16. (1) Every designated public body must, within a period of three years from the commencement of this Act, establish a Gender Focal Point and appoint suitable personnel, at senior management level, to assist the designated public body to implement gender mainstreaming and, generally, to assist the designated public body to comply with this Act.

(2) The accounting officer of the designated public body referred to in the Public Finance Management Act, 2012, and the accounting officer of the designated private body must ensure that the designated public body or designated private body, as the case may be, implements gender mainstreaming and women empowerment.

(3) The Executive Committee Member must, by notice in the County and Kenya Gazette, make regulations on the qualifications, skills and duties of the personnel to be appointed in the Gender Focal Point.

PART V—ENFORCEMENT

Enforcement

17. Subject to the Intergovernmental Relations Act, 2012, the Executive Committee Member, acting in the interests of women as a group or class of persons, may use any dispute resolution mechanisms to address non-compliance with this Act or applicable legislation.

PART VI —CODE OF GOOD CONDUCT, NORMS AND STANDARDS AND REGULATIONS

Code of good conduct

18. The Executive Committee Member may, by notice in County and Kenya Gazette, publish a code of good conduct on gender mainstreaming and women empowerment.

Framework on gender mainstreaming and women empowerment

19. The Executive Committee Member may, by notice in the County and Kenya Gazette, publish frameworks on gender mainstreaming and women empowerment.

Regulations

20. The Executive Committee Member may, by notice in the County and Kenya Gazette, make regulations regarding—

- (a) the establishment of institutional mechanisms to advise the Executive Committee Member on—

- (i) the promotion of substantive gender equality;
- (ii) the promotion of the economic empowerment of women; and
- (iii) monitoring and evaluation of progress on women empowerment and gender equality;
- (b) gender mainstreaming;
- (c) the competencies required for appointment of personnel in the Gender Focal Point;
- (d) equal representation and participation; and
- (e) any other administrative or procedural matter that it is necessary or expedient to prescribe in order to achieve the objectives of this Act.

PART VII — MISCELLANEOUS

Delegation

21. (1) The Executive Committee Member may delegate any power conferred, or assign any duty imposed, upon the Executive Committee Member in terms of this Act, except the powers and duties contemplated by sections 14, 17, 18 and 19, to the Chief officer or to other officials in the Department.

- (2) A delegation or assignment under sub-section (1)—
 - (a) is subject to any limitations, conditions and directions the Executive Committee Member may impose;
 - (b) must be in writing;
 - (c) may include the power to sub-delegate or reassign; and
 - (d) does not divest the Executive Committee Member of the responsibility concerning the exercise of the power or the performance of the duty.

SCHEDULE (Section 2)
APPLICABLE LEGISLATION

Serial No.	Short Title
	Children's Act, 2001
	Persons with Disability Act, 2003
	Sexual Offences Act, 2006
	Employment Act, 2007
	Labour Relations Act, 2007
	Labour Institutions Act, 2007
	Elections Act, 2011
	Political Parties Act, 2011
	Land Acts, 2012
	Land Registration Act, 2012
	National Land Commission, 2012
	Matrimonial Act, 2013
	County Government Act, 2012
	Public Finance Management Act, 2012
	Basic Education Act, 2013

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Bill seeks to introduce measures and targets to strengthen existing legislation on the promotion of women empowerment and gender equality. It carries forward the constitutional vision of equality by requiring the development and implementation of plans and measures to redress gender imbalances and to submit those plans and measures to the Executive Committee Member for consideration, evaluation and guidance. It also seeks to promote the protection and advancement of women and girl children, as envisaged by section 27(2) of the Constitution.

Clause 1 provides for definitions.

Clause 2 provides that unless otherwise indicated in the Act, the Bill applies to designated public bodies and designated private bodies.

Clause 3 provides for the following objectives which includes:

- To give effect to sections 10 and 27 of the Constitution;
- to provide for compliance with international agreements

Clause 4 provides that designated public bodies and designated private bodies must develop and implement plans and measures to ensure access to education for all, to address the continued discriminatory practices, and ensure that the education programmes equip women with the requisite knowledge, skills and values to enable women to participate in the economy and all structures.

Clause 5 provides that designated public bodies and designated private bodies must develop and implement a model for delivering women's health, including reproductive health.

Clause 6(2) provides that the Executive Committee Member may establish mechanisms to undertake research, educational programmes and other measures to strengthen the efforts of designated public bodies and private bodies.

Clause 7 provides that despite any other law, designated public bodies and designated private bodies must develop and implement measures in order to achieve the progressive realisation of at least 50 percent representation and meaningful participation of women in decision making structures.

Clause 8 provides for implementation of gender mainstreaming and the submission of plans to the Executive Committee Member by the designated public bodies and designated private bodies within a year of being designated.

Clause 9 provides that despite any other law, targets on women and men in all laws and policies on empowerment shall be at least 50% women; It provides that all designated public bodies and designated private bodies must develop and implement plans and special measures to protect and advance women as a category which has been disadvantaged by unfair discrimination.

Clause 10 provides that despite any other law, targets on women and men in all laws and policies on economic empowerment shall be at least 50% women. It further provides that designated public bodies and designated private bodies must develop and implement plans and strategies to align their laws and policies with sub-section (1) within two years of being designated.

Clause 11 provides for special measures for the socio-economic development for women in rural areas. Whereas Clause 12 provides for special measures for the socio-economic development for women with disabilities.

Clause 14 provides that the Executive Committee Member may, in consultation with the relevant Executive Committee Member, provide guidance to the designated public bodies and designated private bodies to promote women empowerment and gender equality.

Clause 15 provides that every designated public body must within a period of three years from the commencement of this Act, establish a Gender Focal Point and appoint suitable personnel at an SMS level as prescribed and resource it appropriately.

Clause 16 provides that subject to the Intergovernmental Relations Act, 2012, the Executive Committee Member, acting in the interests of women as a group or class of persons, may use any dispute resolution mechanisms to address non-compliance with this Act.

Clause 17 provides that the Executive Committee Member may, by notice in a Gazette, publish a code of good conduct on gender mainstreaming and women empowerment.

Clause 18 provides that the Executive Committee Member may develop a framework on gender mainstreaming and women empowerment.

Clause 19 provides that the Executive Committee Member may develop regulations.

Clause 20 provides that the Executive Committee Member may delegate any power conferred, or assign any duty imposed upon the Executive Committee Member in terms of this Act, except the powers and duties contemplated in sections 14, 17, 18 and 19.

The enactment of this Bill will not occasion additional expenditure of public funds.

Dated the 5th September, 2023.

JAPHET CHERUIYOT,
*Chairperson, Committee on Gender,
Culture and Social Services.*