I know there are challenges and I know that there are many other changes that may occur with the membership of this Assembly but God willing, we will continue to be together.

As a Speaker, I have had a wonderful opportunity to be with you. Thank you for giving me an opportunity to serve. We pray to God that as we continue to the final leg and we will continue to be friends. This is such a moment that we feel that if wishes were horses then we would continue together. I am glad as a Speaker, to say that you Members are wonderful people. May God bless you as you venture into other areas of interests for those who may not make it. For those who will proceed, I pray that we move together and support each other. Your word as Members of this County Assembly will go a long way in supporting us and seeing that the Third Assembly will be successful.
