STATEMENT DUE AS AT WEDNESDAY 10TH SEPTEMBER 2025 AT 9.30 A.M

Comprehensive statement by Hon. Ernest Rotich from the Chairperson Committee on Health and Sanitation concerning the general status of health facilities in Bomet County. The Hon. Member stated that the same had been necessitated by the recent incidences of loss of lives in the County health facilities including but not limited to the loss of one Ms. Damaris while giving birth at Cheptalal Sub-county hospital.

In the statement, the Chairperson should indicate:

- I. The circumstances that led to the unfortunate demise of Ms. Damaris while giving birth in Cheptalal sub-county hospital.
- II. Whether the personnel manning the County and Sub-county hospitals ranging from the administrative heads are competent to run the stated facilities.

- III. The Honorable member asked to be provided with the qualifications of each of the administrative head of the County and Sub-County hospitals in the County.
- IV. The adequacy and availability of drugs and medical services in the County and Sub-county hospitals
- V. The referral protocols in the County Referral and Sub-county hospitals including the personnel involved in the referral procedure.
- VI. The facilitation of the personnel serving in the ambulance services and the maintenance of the ambulances serving in the county and sub-county hospitals.
- VII. The expenditure reports of the Department of Medical Services for the month of July 2024 to date.

The CECM Medical and Health Services who was present during the plenary sitting on 28th November 2024 provided preliminary response to the statement. The CECM was directed to provide a comprehensive response in a period of one week.
